

ElvalHalcor

Valuable Contributors to Society

We are ElvalHalcor, positioned among leading companies worldwide, expert in aluminium and copper processing. Our economic and social footprint in Greece exceeds the average performance a major industrial company can deliver. According to the IOBE (Foundation for Economic & Industrial Research) study*, our activities create a strong added value surplus, stimulating the entire Greek economy in multiple ways.

Putting our people as our top priority, we invest substantially in their continuous development and well-being. Guided by corporate responsibility and social awareness, we actively support local communities by enhancing entrepreneurship opportunities and local suppliers' employment.

56% of our human resources come from the communities in which we operate. We consistently cater to the needs of the wider region in sectors such as health, education, culture, sports and infrastructure, and we keep on open communication with local bodies and associations, supporting the important work they do.

We are committed to sustainable growth, employment protection, social progress, and cohesion.
